

CODIAC FIRST TOUCH – REFUND POLICY

Purpose

To provide clarity on the basis for which refunds will be given.

Definition

Refund: the returning of registration fees for a player who will not be playing in the season for which fees were paid.

Policy

Full Refunds will be granted in the following situations:

- First Touch is not able to field a team for the age division for which registration fees have been paid (refund of try-out, registration, and select fees paid).

Partial Refunds will be granted in the following situations:

- A player makes the team for which he/she has tried out, but decides to withdraw from the team prior to the first match (refund of registration and select fees paid minus a $50.00 administration fee)
- A player makes the team for which he/she has tried out, but decides to play House League (refund of Select fee)
- A player fails to make the team for which he/she is trying out, and the player opts not to play House League (refund of registration and select fees paid)

No refund will be given if:

- A player makes the team for which he/she has tried out and has participated in at least match
- a player has been dismissed for disciplinary reasons
- the request is made after June 15 of the playing season

Procedure

- All refund requests must be sent in writing to Annabel Welling via email (bswelling@hotmail.com) or by email to Codiac Soccer (codiacsoccer@nb.aibn.com).
- Refunds will be issued on May 31, July 5, and July 31.
